Luxury Travel for Groups

After some rough winter months, it's no surprise that travelers are itching to hop on the next flight out - especially with their family and friends! The peak season for group travel is approaching and what better way to soak up the sun then indulging in a luxurious getaway with your best friends, significant other, family, etc. Here are some of the must-visit hotels and resorts all over the world that are making sure your group is taken care of:

Playa Largo Resort & Spa | Key Largo, Florida

Situated on 14.5 beachfront acres, Playa Largo Resort & Spa is a tropical oasis located in the heart of the Upper Florida Keys and offers groups the ultimate island getaway without having to leave the country. The resort most recently unveiled bungalows and multi-bedroom villas perfect for group travelers, just steps away from the main resort, and complete with exclusive amenities and one-of-a-kind packages to make every group getaway unforgettable. Playa Largo's "Girls Just Want to Have Fun" package is designed for ladies to relax in paradise, complete with revitalizing face masks, soothing sleep masks, luxurious salt scrubs, a bottle of wine or champagne, and delicious chocolates. Slip into more relaxation at this picture-esque paradise and head to the Ocean Spa for a variety of more packages designed to rejuvenate every type of traveler, from soothing head to toe treatments, massages for healing muscles after an adventurous day, or a romantic couple's massage package to re-discover togetherness, there's packages for every group.
