

MILLENNIUM™

Celebrate Pride Month 2022 at These LGBTQ-friendly Destinations

The Florida Keys – Playa Largo Resort & Spa and Southernmost Beach Resort

The Florida Keys are a notoriously gay-friendly and favored destination for queer travelers, offering a welcoming and inviting atmosphere throughout the entire region. Beginning with the Upper Florida Keys, just a 1.5 hour drive from Miami, gay travelers seeking a tranquil and relaxing experience can kick back in Key Largo, where they'll be able to experience the area's signature offers, like fresh seafood, outdoor and nature-based activities, without the hustle and bustle of other locales. For tranquil gay travelers, no other resort is as great of a fit as Playa Largo Resort & Spa, an Autograph Collection by Marriott resort. The award-winning luxury resort offers travelers a pristine pool lined with cabanas, one of the area's only pristine white sand beaches with calm waters, multiple restaurants, a spa, and accommodation options to fit all group sizes, from solo travelers and couples, to large groups who can stay at one of the newly unveiled Ocean Residences luxury homes.

Meanwhile, those looking to paint the town will find exactly what they're looking for in iconic Key West. Considered one of the 'Gay Mecca's' of the country, there's no shortage of fun happenings on the famed Duval Street, especially during PRIDE month. Reminiscent of Nashville's southern charm, but with a hint of Las Vegas swagger, queer travelers can enjoy decadent drag queen brunches, beach bonfire parties, bar crawls, a colorful PRIDE parade and more while staying in Key West. Your gateway to all of the action: Southernmost Beach Resort. Situated along the southernmost limit of Duval Street, the resort boasts three palm-fringed pools, a tanning pier, private beach with lounge chairs and cabanas, signature restaurant and two bars. Near all of the action, but in a world of its own, this luxe oceanfront oasis will leave you longing to stay.