Each of us has a unique vision of our perfect end of summer getaway. Labor Day, depending on where you visit, can be quiet and peaceful or boisterous and vibrant.

I have highlighted a few of my favorite getaway spots that are perfect for three, four, or more days to celebrate the end of summer and the approaching autumnal equinox. They are listed in no particular order.

6. Key Largo

Florida

Get a good workout with all the water sports available in the Keys. Paddle away on a guided Mangroves and Manatees Eco Tour, explore the coral reefs on a Scuba Diving or Snorkeling adventure, or sail away on the Cruisin' Tiki — a floating tiki bar.

Where To Stay: Playa Largo Resort & Spa is a stunning Florida Bay beachfront getaway with a private beach and a zero-entry waterfront pool. This Labor Day weekend, Playa Largo is hosting a beachfront barbecue complete with snow cones, beer buckets, and refreshing margaritas — a beach-centric luxury getaway at its finest.
